

100th Anniversary of the Negro League Baseball 1920 – 2020

Play Ball!

April 3rd, 4th & 5th

Celebrate Cape May's Negro League Baseball History with a weekend of presentations, book signings, trivia contests, an independent movie, trolley tour and even a vintage baseball game!

Weekend Schedule:

Friday, April 3rd:

5:00 PM: Kick off the baseball weekend in Cape May with a meet & greet cocktail get-together at the Mad Batter Restaurant, 19 Jackson St., followed by baseball themed finger foods. $25. Cash Bar.

7:00 PM: Enjoy a discussion on Octavius Cato presented by Dr. Jerrold Casway with an after-dinner Q&A

Saturday, April 4th:

11:00 AM: Book signing with Gaylon White, author of four baseball books, at Cape May Stage, 405 Lafayette St.

2:00 PM: It's Batter Up! at Historic Cold Spring Village, 720 Rt. 9N, for an old-fashioned, vintage baseball game. Hot dogs, popcorn & songs. Join the fun for this free event!

7:00 PM: Panel discussion of Negro Baseball in Middle Township & Lower Township in the 1960s, followed by Team Trivia! Do you think you know your sports statistics, teams, players, history and more? Compete for prizes in the Carriage House Tent on the grounds of the Emlen Physick Estate, 1048 Washington St. $10 to participate.

Sunday, April 5th:

11:00 AM: Board the MAC Trolley for a guided tour of historic Cape May baseball sites. Limited seating. Call 609-884-5404 to reserve your seat. Tickets $15.

1:00 PM: Baseball themed film featuring Negro League Baseball.

2:30 – 5:30 PM: A weekend wrap-up and buffet at the Mad Batter Restaurant. Cash Bar.

For more info on events, call 609-884-5404, ext. 118

Partners: Mad Batter Restaurant, Cape May Stage, Historic Cold Spring Village, Mid-Atlantic Center for the Arts & Humanities (MAC), Center for Community Arts.